BACKGROUND

Born in Hayward, Ca. I grew up mostly in Southern California with spells in Arizona and Washington. A 1989 graduate of San Luis Obispo High School, I attended community colleges and UCSB, but no degree. I have been honing my craft as a window cleaner for more than 30 years, and I own a saloon on Main Street.

LIVING ON THE NORTH COAST

I dropped out of college in 1992, found a job delivering the Telegram Tribune in Cambria, fell in love with the area and have lived here since. I am Past Commander, Sons of the American Legion. Also, I am an alumni of the San Luis Obispo Rugby Club. I most enjoy all of the friendly people in Cambria as well as an abundance of dirty windows and the ability to wear shorts year-round.

15 MINUTES OF FAME

I have represented my country on a couple of Rugby Tours in Canada. I have been interviewed on television and by a newspaper, but I have no desire to be famous.

WHY ARE YOU VOLUNTEERING TO SERVE ON THE NCAC?

My son was born on December 30, 2017 and I had a desire to participate in the community that he will be raised in. And Aaron Linn asked me if I would. I agreed.
